In Memoriam.

Strange it is, this life we live so full of beauty, so full of mystery, so wonderful at every point, takes on a familiar face. We accept its many features as commonplace and they make little impression upon us.
There is one phase of human experience, however, with which we can never grow familiar, although one of the most common it never fails to impress us—that which we call death. Only when we stand in its awful shadow do we fully realize the brevity of our little hour which at most is but a schooling for something beyond.

Our entire community was deeply saddened by the death of Mrs. Hugh G. Harsha, which occurred at her home in this city, Thursday morning last, July 30, 1914, at the age of 29 years, leaving a baby girl nine days' old.

The passing of Mrs. Harsha is the passing of a most beautiful Christian character. She was the possessor of a sunny disposition and a sweet, charming manner that made her a favorite with every one in whose company she mingled. In the church and Sunday school she will be greatly missed, for it was here she ever appeared the strongest—a faithful, devoted worker, whose every effort was to build up and make her church and Sunday school the stronger. In her home she was the ideal Christian wife so gentle, so kind, so considerate. As the daughter, she was one who ever thought of the comfort of father and mother; as a neighbor, considerate and kind.

Mrs. Harsha was of that type of womanhood that was in love with life, and to end it so young would be cruel if she were not to live it on in a larger sphere. The separation is hard, but there is a refining influence in sorrow the world would soon miss if it came not into most of our lives at some time. This sweet, lovable, gentle woman—Pearl Harsha will be missed greatly but remembered long by all who knew her.

May God who gave and who hath taken away sustain all in their sorrow, and may her going help us to live better and purer lives.

"Safe in the arms of Jesus, Safe on His gentle breast, There by His love o'ershadowed, Sweetly our Pearl shall rest."

Mrs. Frances Pearl Harsha was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J.
Keown, of this city, and was born in Harrison County, Missouri, January 27, 1885, and passed away at her home in Oregon, Thursday, July 30, 1914, aged 29 years, 6 months and 3 days, leaving a baby daughter nine days'
old.

She became the wife of Hugh G.
Harsha, September 11th, 1904, who together with her father and mother, one sister, Mrs. Merl Norris, and one brother, W. E. Keown, of this city, survive.

Impressive funeral services were held from the Christian church, of which she had been a faithful member since 1901, joining under the ministy of the late Elder W. T. Maupin.
The services were conducted Saturday afternoon, August 1, 1914, by the pastor, Elder B. H. Dawson, and the remains were laid to rest to await the Resurrection morn in Maple Grove cemetery.

They Were Married.

King David Gillenwater, and Miss Sadie Edna Horn were married Wednesday evening, July 29, 1914, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Adolph, just west of town, by the Rev. J. H.
Thompson, pastor of the First M. E. church, of Oregon, in the presence of the immediate family. These young people both live at Craig, Mo., and both were clerking in the same store up until the time of their marriage, and will return to make Craig their home. The groom is a brother of Mrs. Adolph. After the ceremony they were served with a wedding supper by Mrs. Adolph. They returned home the same evening. They are among the choicest of Craig's society, and have hosts of friends who will wish them much joy in their wedded life.

on, fell from a tree while picking apples for Web Carder the latter part of last week and broke his arm. At last reports the young man was getting along nicely.—Forest City News, July 31.
